Transits of the Major Planets

The transits of the major planets, in other words those furthest from the Sun, have the greatest influence and determine the most important events in life. The more distant a planet and the longer it takes on its path around the Sun, the more lasting are its effects.

The minor transits, whose movement is rapid, only produce fleeting states of mind, actions of no particular importance in everyday life.

The information given below is not valid in isolation. One must also take into account the Signs of the Zodiac and the Houses where these aspects are found. The position of the planets and their aspects in the natal chart must also be taken into account.

The gift of foretelling by the stars requires a lot of work, but also a lot of tact and human feeling. Never make fatal predictions, as everyone can get things wrong - even you.

267 Conjunction Saturn - Saturn

Positive aspect: Everything depends on the position of Saturn in the birth chart. Nothing outstanding, extraordinary or unlucky will happen, it will be dead calm. You might be a little more stable and serious. It is more of a lackluster period, time works for you and you just have to wait for a more energizing transit, although this restful one can also be appreciated.

126 Trine Venus - Mars

Positive aspect: You will be very attracted by a member of the opposite sex. This person will be the type you like, with a very strong personality.

105 Trine Venus - Saturn

Positive aspect: Problems will be resolved with no difficulty, everything will fit into place.

100 Trine Venus - Uranus

Positive aspect: Meeting new people, full of originality. Pleasant surprises, a breath of fresh air.

-91 Square Mercury - Saturn

Negative aspect: You take your time, and will think carefully before taking the slightest decision, but you run the risk of losing contracts by your lack of vivacity.

75 Trine Mars - Saturn

Positive aspect: You will be determined and energetic. You will be strong and able to carry out your plans. You will be hard and unshakeable in your decisions. You will realize your plans, with the will-power to overcome any resistance.

54 Trine Saturn - Uranus

Positive aspect: You will be objective, lively, competent, prudent and calculating. Your imagination won't play tricks on you. You will have a spirit of adventure and independence, but you will weigh up all the possibilities before setting out on any new adventure; nothing will be left to chance. You will be entirely satisfied with the results.
